Many people worry about getting charges on a bank account. But we can help. We'll help you open a fee-free bank account where you won't be charged when a Direct Debit or standing order fails.

What happens if I don't pay?

It is a condition of your Tenancy Agreement that you pay your rent on time.

You must get in touch with us immediately if you miss a payment or are struggling to pay. We will do everything we can to help you. If you don't pay your rent and don't get in touch with us, we will contact you and find out why you haven't paid and offer you support to get back on top of things.

If you refuse to talk to us or fail to keep up with your agreed payment plan, we will take legal action. Where arrears continue to rise, we will, as a last resort, raise an action with the courts. If a Sheriff decides to grant a decree, an eviction must then take place.

Ways to pay my rent

We have a range of easy ways to pay your rent.

Direct Debit

Direct Debit is the most hassle-free. Lots of our customers already pay their rent by Direct Debit. Once you have set up a Direct Debit, your payment will come off your bank account on a date and at a frequency that suits you. If you don't have a bank account, we can help you get one. Ask us about fee-free banking.

If you pay using online banking or in a branch, make sure you use your rent reference number so your payment goes into your account without delay.

Other ways to pay

Phone

Call us free 24 hours a day, seven days a week, on 0800 479 7979 to pay by debit or credit card.

Housing Benefit

If you receive full housing benefit, your rent is likely to be paid by your local authority. If you receive partial housing benefit, you are responsible for paying the rest.

The UK Government's Welfare Reform changes are gradually replacing housing benefit for working age claimants. Speak to your housing officer if you need any advice.

Universal Credit

If you receive Universal Credit, you may receive a Housing Costs Element within your award. This may cover your full rent. If you receive this payment, remember it is your responsibility to pay your rent. The quickest way to do this is by setting up a Direct Debit.

If you have other income and your rent is not fully covered, you are responsible for paying the rest.

If the shortfall is because you are under occupying the property, you will get help to cover this through the Discretionary Housing Payment fund. Your Local Authority administers this. You need to complete an application, we can help.
